AGENDA
Minutes
Administration

Discussions about meetings with the Master Developer, Town Boards, and the organization of an education program addressing open space within the former Weymouth Naval Air Station development.

This program would be used to inform town leaders and the general public the history of the planned preservation of open space in the base development. This would include a review of changes made to the plan by the current Master Developer and proposed changes of open space in the new plan and it's zoning.
