Rules of Participation

Please read the following instructions and statements. Submission of your application signifies you have read, understand, and shared the information with everyone in your group who will participate.

- Participation in this event is contingent upon everyone and/or group promoting a relaxed, family friendly, community-oriented atmosphere.
- If you are entering a float in the parade, then we ask that during the parade no one disembarks the float or enter on the float during the parade. We also ask that no arms or legs be hanging off the float during the parade.
- In the interest of maintaining public safety, security, and the wellbeing of all event attendees and to protect the “content neutral nature” of the event, any promotion of individual candidates, political parties, or specific social positions are prohibited. The prohibition includes, but is not limited to, the distribution of political themed literature and the carrying and/or posting of signs or other political media at the event.
- Individuals and/or groups whose function or purpose is related to these activities are also prohibited.
- Any individual may participate as a private citizen in the event if they adhere to the rules as stated herein.
- We reserve the right to take appropriate action if any participating individual or group fails to follow these Rules of Participation.
- We reserve the right to reject any application for participation in the event.
